

Saskatchewan
Arts Alliance

2026 Saskatchewan Arts Alliance Nominations Slate

The SAA Board of Directors is pleased to put forward the following candidates for election to the Board at the Annual General Meeting on September 29, 2026. Directors serve a two-year term beginning at their election.

The following nominees are seeking election to the SAA Board of Directors for their first term...

Nikki Little (she/her) - Regina

Nikki is a freelance educator, writer, and artist. She started her small business, Inky Cap Creations, to explore how these three fields connect under the umbrella of communication.

You may have run into Nikki or her work before in Regina's cultural scene. She was previously part of the MacKenzie Art Gallery's education team and continues to write for them as a freelancer. She is a ceramic artist, and she teaches classes at Cathedral Art School. She's also worked as an artist's assistant.

Nikki studied visual art and arts education at the University of Regina. Currently, she is studying through Simon Fraser University to become a Plain Language expert. Plain Language is the art of writing accessibly, with a focus on your reader's needs.

Saskatchewan
Arts Alliance

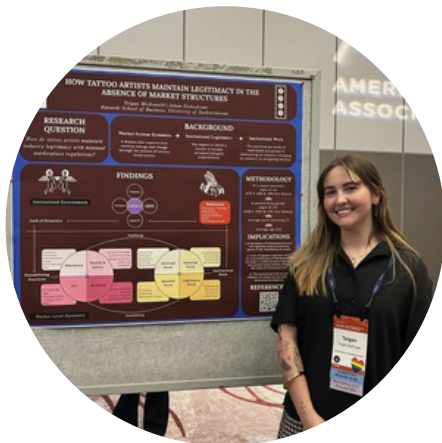

2026 Saskatchewan Arts Alliance Nominations Slate

Teigan McDonald (she/her) - Saskatoon

Teigan McDonald is a Business Development Specialist at the Saskatoon Regional Economic Development Authority (SREDA), where she supports companies looking to grow, expand, and invest in the Saskatoon region. She holds a Bachelor of Commerce (Honours with Distinction) from the Edwards School of Business at the University of Saskatchewan, specializing in qualitative market research focused on creative industry legitimacy, policy, and non-traditional market structures.

Prior to SREDA, Teigan spent over four years directing operations, marketing, and financial growth at Honey Bee Tattoo Collective. She is deeply committed to community action, having spearheaded fundraising campaigns that raised over $50,000 for non-profits such as OUTSaskatoon, Prairie Harm Reduction, EGADZ, and the Saskatoon Indian & Métis Friendship Centre.

Strategic, creative, and ambitious, Teigan is passionate about sustainable economic growth, strong community networks, and uplifting Saskatchewan's arts and culture ecosystem.

Saskatchewan
Arts Alliance

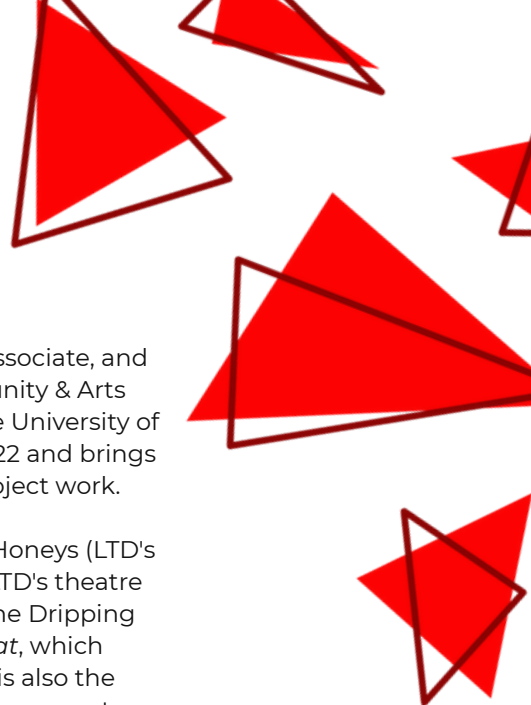

2026 Saskatchewan Arts Alliance Nominations Slate

Shaylee Rosnes (she/her) - Regina

Shaylee Rosnes is an artist, administrative associate, and arts programmer with Listen to Dis' Community & Arts Organization (LTD'). She graduated from the University of Regina with a Bachelor of Social Work in 2022 and brings that education to her programming and project work.

Shaylee is an actor with both The Dripping Honeys (LTD's music ensemble) and The Other Ordinary (LTD's theatre company). Most recently, she appeared in The Dripping Honeys' production Bits & Pieces of Dis' & Dat, which toured the province from 2023 to 2026. She is also the monologist in the annual Not Just Christmas concert, performed at care and seniors' homes in Regina and area, as well as in an annual public concert. She has co-presented at conferences including the 2024 Re-Imagining Nonprofits conference and Inclusion Saskatchewan's 2025 Inclusion conference.

Saskatchewan
Arts Alliance

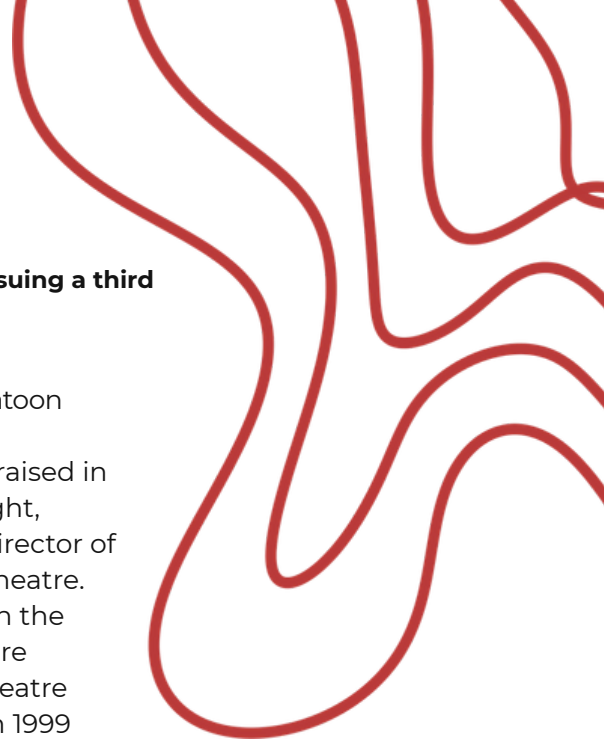

2026 Saskatchewan Arts Alliance Nominations Slate

The following nominees have completed two two-year terms and are pursuing a third two-year term on the SAA Board of Directors...

Jennifer D. Bishop (she/her) - Saskatoon

Jennifer is a Metis artist born and raised in Treaty Six. She is an actor, playwright, director and the current Artistic Director of the Gordon Tootoosis Nikaniwin Theatre. Jennifer first got into theatre when the Gordon Tootoosis Nikaniwin Theatre (formerly Saskatchewan Native Theatre Company) first opened its doors in 1999 with the Circle of Voices Program. Since then, Jennifer has remained connected to the theatre community and culture. She has a deep love of theatre, her community and more.

Saskatchewan
Arts Alliance

2026 Saskatchewan Arts Alliance Nominations Slate

Krystal Glowatski (she/her) - Weyburn

Krystal is a Cree woman and a small business owner in Weyburn SK. She is a 3rd generation art based business owner. Since the opening of CollabARTive Studios in March 2022 Krystal has been on a journey of evolving arts practices based on public need and interest. Some major hits from the studio include our epic paint nights, in studio private parties and murder mystery parties. Krystal recently completed her PhD in Criminology with a specialization in restorative justice. In her down time, Krystal enjoys spending time with family, her partner Trent, and her furry 4-legged friends Koji, Gaia, and Jack.

Saskatchewan
Arts Alliance

2026 Saskatchewan Arts Alliance Nominations Slate

Josh Haugerud (he/him) - Regina

Josh Haugerud is an experienced leader with a passion for music and the arts. Josh has demonstrated expertise in nonprofit management, event coordination, and advocacy, with a background in the music, health and safety, and radio industries.

Josh's career includes time as the Executive Director of the Regina Folk Festival and Radius Communications Inc. (Regina Community Radio). During his time with Regina Community Radio, the organization won the SaskMusic Industry Achievement award. Currently, Josh serves as the Director of Membership for the Saskatchewan Chamber of Commerce.

Josh has a strong presence in the music and arts community. He has served as a judge for the Saskatchewan Music Awards, Juno Awards, and Western Canadian Music Awards. He is a multi-instrumentalist, played drums with Picture Radio, and currently is making music under the name dj RSD.

Josh has served as a Board Member with the Heritage Community Association, Solid Futures Learning Centre and currently with the Saskatchewan Arts Alliance.

Saskatchewan

Arts Alliance 2026 Saskatchewan Arts Alliance Nominations Slate

Jeff Morton (he/him) -

Jeff Morton is a curator, composer, media artist, and arts worker based in rural southeast Saskatchewan, Treaty 2 territory, land of the Anishinaabeg, Cree, Oji-Cree, Assiniboiné, Dakota, and Dene Peoples, and the traditional homeland of the Métis Nation.

As an artist, Jeff's work integrates music, sound, and media, exploring themes of sound-making, listening, communication, and transcription. Drawing on traditional instruments, found musical objects, natural materials, and technologies, his performances and installations have been presented in galleries, festivals, and showcases across Canada and internationally since 2001.

Jeff has worked for many arts organizations including the Canada Council for the Arts, Canadian New Music Network, the Godfrey Dean Art Gallery, Saskatchewan Arts Alliance, CARFAC SASK, SK Arts, the MacKenzie Art Gallery, Dunlop Art Gallery, Neutral Ground Artist Run Centre, Holophon Audio Arts, Open Space, and the University of Victoria, among others. As a self-employed arts professional, Jeff takes on roles as project leader, consultant, producer, curator, website designer, preparator, technician, editor, writer, and graphic designer.

Saskatchewan
Arts Alliance

2026 Saskatchewan Arts Alliance Nominations Slate

Alejandro Romero (he/him) -

Alejandro is an independent visual and interdisciplinary artist, curator and consultant in Arts and Culture. His leadership as an arts administrator include the renovation of an old theatre, public performances, lectures and public speaking. His work explores anonymous interventions, social activism, cultural resistance, photography, painting and poetry with the concepts of identity, post-colonialism, prophecy, construction and perceptions of reality.

Alejandro is a full-time artist, facilitator, art administrator and instructor. He has exhibited in Puerto Rico, USA, Morocco and Canada. His art is also in private collections in Bolivia, Canada, China, Colombia, Dominican Republic, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Morocco, Spain and the United States. He loves horses and volunteers to promote and preserve the endangered Paso Fino breed.

